People: What will be has not yet been revealed. What do we know? Leader: We know when He is revealed, we will be like Him, for we will see People:

Him as He is.

Let us worship God in song, prayer and devotion.

† Prayer of Adoration (Unison): Gracious and loving God, we thank you for your mercies that are new each morning; for the gifts of sleep, health, strength, and for the visions of a new day, fresh with opportunities for work and service. We thank you for bringing us into your house, where we seek your guidance to meet the duties and tasks of our days. In this sacred place and in this hour, we ask that you strengthen us so that in all our work we would be faithful; amid trials, courageous; in suffering, patient; under disappointment, full of hope. Grant us this, for your goodness' sake. Amen. †Hymn of Adoration # 10 vv. 1,2,4 Sing Glory to the Name of God

Forgive us for dampening the joy in our own hearts, and in the hearts of others. Hear now our silent confessions. (silent prayers) (Unison): Lord, please restore us to a joy-filled life that praises and glorifies your name. Amen. Assurance of Pardon New Creations in Christ
