† Call to Worship

Leader: Children of our great and steadfast God, it is time.
People: On this holy day and in this holy hour we come with open hearts.
Leader: It is time to put your cares and the rhythm of the mundane world on pause.
People: We stand before the cross.
Leader: It was on the cross that our servant Lord, our Savior, ransomed our souls.
People: So in His house, in this sanctuary, we come to give praise, to extol our love, to seek His mercy, and to learn His will, so we may live through our worries and in the world with a special peace.
ALL: On the Lord's day we are here, now, to worship Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

† Prayer of Adoration (Unison): We are a joyful and thankful people. Our God is a great and loving provider. Our Lord Jesus is our guide and Savior. Our comforter and our advocate is the Holy Spirit. We are blessed by the Holy Trinity, imbued with mercy, gifted with grace, promised salvation, and loved in this life and its storms and loved forever in the realms of eternity in that glorious harvest home.

† Hymn of Adoration # 367 Come, Ye Thankful People, Come

Prayer of Confession (Unison): Dear Generous God, we ask your forgiveness when we forget to share the riches of this life and the wealth of the spirit that you have given us. Forgive us when we fail to meet the challenges of our days with the joy of the knowledge that you are with us always and in all things. Forgive us when we forget these mortal days are a passage and that life is measured, not by human time, but by your everlasting Kingdom. Hear now our silent prayers...
(Unison): Lord please help us to be generous, humble, forgiving and grateful so that in us, others may glimpse our savior, Jesus Christ. In His name we pray. Amen.
